World's Largest Beverage Competition Announces Winners

Once again the finest beverage products in the world have met to compete; and the results are now in. The 2009-2010 World Beverage, World Beer, World Spirits and World Wines Competitions have finalized. Entries once again exceeded all prior records with broader and more diverse selections for the judges to choose from.

This years winners hail from more than thirty countries and from all parts of the globe: Argentina, Australia, Belize, Canada, Chile, China, Colombia, Ecuador, France, Germany, India, Indonesia, Ireland, Italy, Jamaica, Kenya, Korea, Laos, Latvia, Martinique, Mexico, Mongolia, Netherlands, New Zealand, Panama, Polynesia, Puerto Rico, Scotland, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom and the United States. With so many entries, the judging went on until midnight of December 15, 2009 to finalize the winners.

The following awards will be posted on our website and provided to the press immediately. Judges notes and a descriptive press release will be sent out as promptly as possible.

Award Winners are granted the right to use the Award Icon and description as provided on their product and advertising starting January 1, 2010 until December 31, 2011 by email request (info@BeverageCompetition.com) as long as they display the year that they won the award and the web address for the award category as shown in the text above.

Congratulations to all of our entrants and award winners, your products are truly the best that the world has to offer and you should all be very proud of that honor!

Wishing you all the best in the coming year,

Sincerely,

WBC Administrative Staff
